

EU Tutoring course on “Safety evaluation, licensing and oversight for decommissioning of nuclear facilities”
Duration	2 M
Content	The training module will envisage the direct involvement on regulatory activities for decommissioning of NF, regulatory licensing and oversight. It will include: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> - Basic introduction to decommissioning strategy and graded approach - Familiarization with regulatory requirements, applicable standards and international references (including obligation for the EU directives) - Analysis of content of decommissioning plan and decommissioning SAR for D&D activities and requirements for material clearance - Evidence of regulator’s licensing management capability, type and content of interfaces between regulator and applicant and between regulator and external technical support - Participation to onsite inspections to get evidence of decommissioning activity and regulatory oversight activity. The tutoring will include onsite visits.
Achievement	Direct knowledge of regulatory control and licensing activity for decommissioning of NF, related requirements, content of decommissioning plan and safety assessment for specific activities, needed competence and onsite regulatory oversight.