

EU Tutoring Course on “Radioactive sources management and requirements”
Duration	2 M
Content	The tutoring course will address the management of radioactive sources (RS) in the medical and industrial field and correspondent regulatory control and oversight activity. It will cover aspects related to management of the RS, regulatory requirements, security aspects, authorization process, content of safety assessment and oversight, role and responsibilities of the operators. Familiarization with EU Directive and the IAEA code of conduct on RS will be ensured with the issues relate to implementation of the EU Directive for BSS (2013) and related impact on RS application in medical field will be described.
Achievements	Consolidate knowledge of safety and regulatory requirements for application of RS in medical and industrial field. Familiarization with authorization process, regulatory review, control and oversight.