

EU Tutoring Course on “Safety evaluation, licensing and oversight of NPP during design and construction”
Duration	1 M
Content	The tutoring activity covers the area of regulatory licensing review of design of a NPP with respect to siting and construction licensing phases and includes site walk down and acquisition of regulatory inspection finding getting evidence of the complementarity between regulatory safety review and regulatory inspections. The course will provide direct knowledge of regulator’s needed technical competences and licensing management capability during design, siting and construction phases. Examination of key aspects of siting analysis and related regulatory evaluation. Familiarization with objective and scope of regulatory safety evaluation for construction license and management of interfaces between regulator and applicant and between regulator and external technical support, will be provided. The tutoring will include onsite visits.
Achievements	A consolidate knowledge of regulatory review and oversight function for siting and construction of NPP and familiarization with regulatory evaluation and management of interface with the licensee